Curveball: The Year I Lost My Grip

by Jordan Sonnenblick

Booktalk!

SNAP! The sound Peter's elbow made on his last baseball pitch. Ever.

Peter's baseball career comes to a halt just as high school is beginning. How can he fill his days without sports? A photography class could start a new hobby; his grandfather already taught him plenty. But grandfather's memory loss and meeting Angelika were only two huge challenges he'll face this year. He can't even tell his best friend he'll never play ball again. Good thing Peter still has a sense of humor.

Best for ages 12 & up
